

WESTERLY WIFE FORGIVING

Refused to Testify Against Brutal Husband—Sharpshooters Named for Coming Contests—North Stonington Burglar Arrested in Bridgeport—Stonington, Carolina and Wakefield Win in Saturday's Games.

In the Third district court Saturday morning John Ferrara of Pierce street was arraigned on the charge of an assault upon his wife, Friday night. Mrs. Ferrara was in court with her head bandaged. When the husband was put to sleep, he stated that he was so drunk that he did not know whether or not he struck his wife and knocked her down. Mrs. Ferrara stated that she sustained the injury to her head by slipping and falling, and denied that her husband had struck her. There was no other evidence, and not enough to convict the accused.

Complaint was immediately issued, charging Ferrara with intoxication. To this charge he had already confessed and pleaded guilty. He was fined $12 and costs, a total of $48.80, which he paid.

The vessels comprising the Rhode Island Yacht-club arrived Sunday afternoon in Stonington harbor where they remained during the night. This (Monday) morning they will proceed to Watch Hill, the power craft towing the sailing vessels. They will remain at Watch Hill until Tuesday morning when they will race for prizes to Block Island.

The Fifth company, Coast Artillery Corps, Westerly, will be represented in the state rifle team this year, in the matches at Wakefield, Mass., in the New England interstate tournament, and later at Camp Perry, Ohio. Maj. Howard D. Wilcox, inspector of target practice, has selected the following to constitute the team: Maj. H. D. Wilcox, executive officer; Capt. Martin S. Panning, quartermaster; Capt. Lee J. Hines, surgeon; "Spotter," with the following sharpshooters of the Rhode Island National Guard:

Sgt. Alfred Lindroth, Fourth company; Mus. David A. Mathewson, Battery B; Corp. John C. Trait, Fourth company; Sgt. John T. McGovern, Second company; Capt. Joseph P. Reilly, Thirteenth company; First Lieut. John E. England, Thirteenth company; First Lieut. Edward B. Holmes, Battery B; Capt. B. S. D. Martin, First company; Corp. Oscar W. Strom, Seventh company; Private Richard F. Cote, Eighth company; Mus. Charles S. Harwood, Seventh company; Sgt. Paul Thirteenth company; First Lieut. Henry A. Crosby, Fourth company; Corp. William D. Tren, Third company; Sgt. Charles Fletcher, Battery B. The team is now composed of fifteen, three more members than last year.

The team will engage in matches at Wakefield on Thursday and Friday of next week. Last year the Rhode Islanders captured several individual prizes and finished third in the interstate competition.

In August the team will compete in the Camp Perry, Ohio, tournament. Last year the Rhode Island team finished 34th in a field of 50, but were handicapped by a measure by a 25-mile wind which blew over the range from Lake Erie, imposing conditions with which the Rhode Island rifleman were not familiar. This year's team has eleven members who were on the team a year ago, and who are therefore familiar with conditions that may arise.

Stonington people received the unwelcome official notice Saturday that the Norwich line boats that have made Stonington the eastern terminal since the wharf and freight shed in New London were burned last February, were to return to New London, Sunday, August 1. The boats at present on the line are the Chester W. Chapin and City of Lowell.

Deputy Sheriff Casey went to Bridgeport Saturday and re-arrested Henry Ackley, upon his release from jail, where he had served a sentence for breaking and entering a residence. Ackley was wanted for burglary of the residence of John D. Avery in North Stonington, in March, 1937. He was arraigned before Justice Charles E. Chapman, Saturday afternoon, in North Stonington. Examination was waived and Ackley was held for trial in the superior court.

Association with him was Theodore Snyder in the North Stonington case. He was also with Ackley in the Fairfield county burglary, and is serving an extra year in Bridgeport jail for attempting to escape, by sawing the iron bars that confined him. When Snyder's term expires, he, too, will be arrested for the North Stonington burglary.

A memorial window to John Hobart Cross has been placed in Christ Episcopal church, representing the baptism of Christ by John the Baptist. The inscription reads: "This is 'Beloved Son in Whom I Live' Pleased." and "To the Glory of God and in Memory of John Hobart Cross, born August 31, 1831, died May 10, 1884, for many years a vestryman of this parish. This window was erected by his wife and children."

Stonington, champions of the Rhode Island-Connecticut Baseball league, gave Westerly an awful wallop in the borough Saturday afternoon, and is now tied with Westerly for first place. It was simply a case of Stonington being on the field in their batting line, and in high relief, while it seemed at first that the Westerly players. It made glad the hearts of Stoningtonians, and the Westerlyites do not begrudge the temporary jubilation. The score by innings:

Stonington . . . 1 5 5 2 0 0 9-18
Westerly . . . 1 0 0 0 2 0 0 10-4

White Rock on the home grounds met defeat by the Carolina team, although it was the closest contested game in the league for the day. In the seventh inning White Rock scored a run and that was all. In the sixth Carolina made three trips around the bases. Score by innings:

Carolina . . . 0 0 0 0 3 0 0-3

Local Laconics.
The Union Sunday school of Potter Hill had a picnic at Pleasant View on Saturday.

Maurice Sullivan of Westerly is to enter Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., to study architecture.

The Noank schooner Ada Belle, Capt. Christopher, arrived Saturday at Block Island with 35 swordfish, weighing 6318 pounds, the largest catch of the season.

Miss Ruth C. Burdick of Dixon street, employed in the office of C. B. Cottrell's Sons, left for Pike, N. H., Saturday, where she will spend a vacation of two weeks.

The Young Men's Italian club picked at Brightman's pond Sunday. Next Sunday the Young Men's Social club will have their annual outing and clambake at the same resort.

The governor of the state and Mrs. Aram Poterba spent Sunday at Watch Hill. In the governor's party were Col. and Mrs. Frederick B. Lawson, and the governor's executive secretary and Mrs. Edward P. Folio.

A fire alarm was sent in at 7:30 on Sunday morning for a small blaze in a shed in the rear of the Babcock property in Mechanic street. The P. S. Barker hose company responded, but there was no need for their services, as the fire was extinguished soon after the alarm was sounded.

BRIEF STATE NEWS
Greenwich.—The award of $400,000 Greenwich bonds had been postponed from July 29 to July 31.

Waterbury.—Dr. T. J. Kilmartin has resigned from the medical staff of the Connecticut National guard and has been placed on the retired list by Adjutant General Cole.

Hartford.—Prof. Edward P. St. John of the Hartford Theological seminary was one of the speakers at the Women's Home Missionary conference at East Northfield, Mass.

Meriden.—A series of competitive programmes will be given for the entertainment of the members of the Meriden grange. Last week the single members gave the programme.

Fairfield.—The home of Anton Fickett, who is employed at the shop of the Fairfield Rubber company, was destroyed the other afternoon by fire, which was caused by a stovepipe falling down. The house was on the Duck pond with me.

Horribly Burned
By Boiling Grease—Skin All Came Off One Side of Baby's Face—Thought Her Disfigured for Life.

"My baby was sitting beside the fence and we were preparing the breakfast when the frying-pan full of boiling grease was upset and it went all over one side of her face and head. Some one wiped the scald with a towel, pulling the entire skin off. We took her to a doctor. He tended her a week and gave me some stuff to put on. But it all fostered and I thought the baby was disfigured for life. I used about three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and it was wonderful how it healed. In about five weeks it was better and there wasn't a mark to tell where the scald had been. Her skin is just like velvet. Mrs. Hare, 1, Henry St., South Shields, Durham, England, March 22, 1928."
